Tri-City Challenge Update

- Still looking for volunteers, but this will be a continuous effort. Some ideas include Srs Give Back students, golf team members, community service students.
- New contributions from sponsors include $250 from R and R Machining in Winona, use of ATV equipment from M and M Lawn and Leisure, $500 from Farmer’s Elevator. Jan Smaby and Brad Hoiness continue to work hard in this area.
- Timing Systems – After researching costs and talking with other event organizers, Lisa recommends to use a manual timing system for the first event.
- Banners – Received pricing from 3 vendors for banners, WonderInk being by far the cheapest at $89 per banner for a 10’ x 4’ banner. We will order 2 more banners.
- T-Shirts – Got pricing for long sleeve polyester t-shirts, cheapest estimate being around $15 for 200 or more shirts. These types of shirts are a little more expensive, but thought to be a real attraction to participants. We did decide we will not offer t-shirts for those participating only in Conquer the Bluff, due to cost of participation being very low. We will explore offering a photo or water jug with Conquer the Bluff logo if we can get within the $5 range.

Next meeting – June 6th at noon in library
